Penton told him he thought the supply of cider was all gone, Isaacson said "he guessed he had something worse than cider." He was arrested in front of the Windham National Bank on Main street Tuesday forenoon and did not have a leg under him. He said he was never before in court before. Deputy Judge Arthur Dean imposed a fine of ten dollars and costs amounting to $17.15, which was paid by Isaacson's employer.

Miss Harriet Colgate Abbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe of Windham and Frederick Reginald Lack of New Jersey were united in marriage at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Windham Center, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by the rector, Rev. Walter F. Borchert. The church was attractively decorated with palms, ferns, and pink and white roses. The bride, who entered the church with her father, was gowned in white georgette, trimmed with rose point lace, which had also adorned the wedding gown of her mother. She carried a showy bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Kennard Abbe, a sister of the bride wore a frock of pale green organdie with leghorn hat trimmed with pink heather. She carried sweet peas. The matron of honor, Mrs. Leo Frank Foster of North Carolina, wife of Major Leo P. Foster, U. S. Army, retired, was attired in orchid organdie with leghorn hat faced with lavender and trimmed in purple heather. Her shower bouquet was of smilax. The bride's other attendants, Miss Gladys Lack, sister of the groom, Miss Elizabeth Howson of New York, a cousin of the bride, Miss Lett Murphy of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Walter Abbe, Jr., of South Windham, sister-in-law of the bride, wore frocks of rose pink organdie with picture hats of pink and carried bouquets of smilax. A. H. Leigh of New York was best man and the ushers were Alfred Patton Abbe and Walter Abbe, Jr., brothers of the bride. Mrs. George Anderson of this city was at the organ. A reception at the Abbe home followed the ceremony, the respective parents of the young couple and members of the bridal party assisting them in receiving the guests on the veranda, in a lower of greens and roses.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance begun in France where Mr. Lack was a lieutenant in the Signal Corps, U. S. Army and his bride was connected with the Y. M. C. A. She was overseas for more than two years and was among the first sent with the army of occupation into Germany.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Lack left for a honeymoon trip, continuing to China, where Mr. Lack goes on business. They are to sail from Vancouver, British Columbia, the latter part of this month.

The American Thread Company baseball team has two hard games ahead for the approaching week-end, stacking up against Herman Bronk's star Manchester aggregation on the Mt. Nebo grounds in South Manchester Saturday afternoon and then returning here to battle with the speedy Fish Red Caps of Chicopee, Mass., at Recreation Park on Sunday afternoon. The latter nine won from the local club in Chicopee Saturday last, 4 to 2, in ten innings. It is not yet known definitely who will twist both games for the locals, but in all probability Tuba Mullary of Providence will serve ten over in one. Tuba explained to Manager McQuillan the reason for his non-appearance Sunday, saying he became confused in regard to the train schedule, and has been restored to the public's good graces. To date the local team has won eight out of twelve games.

Michael Spector, of Mansfield, a minor, was in the police court Wednesday morning for parking a team on the north side of Union street, contrary to the recently instituted ordinance. The youth pleaded guilty through Probation Officer Elmer M. Young, appointed as guardian ad litem by the court, although he said he did not understand the law in this respect. The ordinance has been in effect about three months and signs are posted at either end of the street warning drivers of vehicles against parking on the north side. Chief Daniel J. Killourey stated that heretofore warnings have been given by the officers but Spector was taken in custody as a warning that the law must be obeyed. The young man left his team for about half an hour before he returned and was notified to appear in court. He was fined five dollars and costs, amounting to $12.15, which he paid.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breed Theatre.
"Molly and I," based on Frank R. Adams' novel "Molly and I and the Silver Ring," will be presented at the Breed theatre today with Miss Shirley Mason as the star. "Molly and I" is said to be a charming comedy, in which this delightful star finds abundant opportunity to demonstrate her right to the description of 95 pounds of pep, personality and prettiness. As is usual in Fox productions, a cast of well-known artists supports the star. In this instance Albert Roscoe plays opposite Miss Mason, while the balance of the company is said to be consistently good. The picture was directed by Harry M. Minter, who has directed several big screen successes for the Fox Film Corporation. Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran will also be seen in the premier attraction. "Everything But the Truth"—five chuckling reels of a just-married mixup. The Bray Pictograph will complete the bill for today.
